ERASMUS MUNDUS WHAT IS PHOENIX?

PHOENIX is funded with the support of the Erasmus Mundus-Action 2 Programme of the European Commission. Phoenix project intends to develop a structured mobility based cooperation between 3 Palestinian, 2 Lebanese, 1 Syrian and 2 Jordanian Higher Education Institutions on the one side and 9 European Higher Education Institutions from the second side.

This cooperation network aims at supporting students from all levels (Undergraduate, Master, PhD and Postdoctoral), academic staff, researchers and administrative staff to gain experiences, expertise and skills through interaction in an international environment.

WHO ARE THE BENEFICIARIES?

PHOENIX scholarships are aimed at students, researchers and staff who are European nationals or nationals of Jordan, Lebanon, Palestine or Syria, who fall within the following target groups:

- Target Group 1: Students, researchers and staff registered (or working) in one of the higher education institutions member of the partnership.
- Target Group 2: Nationals of the third countries concerned and national of European countries who:
 - Are registered/work in a Higher Education Institution not included in the partnership.
 - Have obtained a university degree or equivalent by a Higher Education Institution of any European country or third country concerned (Jordan, Lebanon, Palestine or Syria) (students only).
- Target Group 3: Nationals of Jordan, Lebanon, Palestine or Syria who are in particularly vulnerable situations, for social and political reasons (check the project web site for more information).
