1 Introduction

There are a number of projects and initiatives in eProcurement in Europe tackling different subjects, issues or aspects of modernizing public procurement. Often groups of experts or individuals behind these projects are not aware of similar projects done by colleagues in the same field working in other European countries.

Therefore the eProcurement Forum, the community of eProcurement experts hosted by the ePractice portal, has gathered and analysed the key activities that have an impact on the development of electronic public procurement in Europe.

These efforts resulted in the creation of a dynamic map of these initiatives, which is provided to all the members of the eProcurement Forum and to any other expert interested in it.

The expected effect is to make all the eProcurement stakeholders aware about what is happening in the European scenario and provide a tool for easy identify "who is doing what".

The 'eProcurement Map' serves as a dynamic picture of various projects, initiatives or communities, having different targets, audiences or approaches to eProcurement.

This document represent the third version of this map which reflects what happened in the eProcurement scenario since the second version has been published about 7 months ago, at the end of October 2009): some new projects have been launched, some other came to the end, new documents have been published and are available for being shared among all the eProcurement practitioners in Europe.

This third version also takes into account the comments and contributions provided by the eProcurement practitioners in Europe.

The document consists of three main sections:

- Section 2: Map of the activities, where all the activities have been described providing synthetic information on objectives, approach and contacts
- Section 3: Available studies, proposing a selection of the available results of these activities and of the reference documents produced by the European Commission
- Section 4: Relevant Legal Acts, proposing the most recent legal acts issued at European level.

2 Map of European eProcurement activities

This chapter summarises the key activities concerning electronic public procurement at European level.

Sections from 2.1 to 2.4 report those activities that are still running.

Section 2.5 reports those activities that appeared in the second version of the Map (issued in October 2009) but that have been closed before the preparation of the current version of the document.

The activities have been grouped into four categories: the projects directly funded and performed by the Commission services, the piloting activities, the standardisation activities and the initiatives for creating communities of experts in the eProcurement areas.

For each activity, the following pieces of information are provided (whenever available):

- Acronym and name
- Short description of its objectives
- Contact persons: for privacy reasons, only the ePractice profile (see <http://www.epractice.eu/people>) has been provided whenever existing
- Information of each subproject or working group (if existing): description, contact persons,
- Topics covered by each subproject
- Related activities that are cooperating with it

2.1 Projects and Initiatives supported by the European Commission

2.1.1 CROBIES

Objective/Mission: the objective of the study on Cross-Border Interoperability of eSignatures (CROBIES) is to propose solutions to remove barriers to cross-border interoperability of qualified electronic signatures and advanced electronic signatures based on qualified certificates.

CROBIES is based on and takes into account the relevant provisions of Directive 1999/93/EC and their national implementations as well as the standardisation work based on the Directive.

CROBIES concentrates in particular on the following issues: supervision and accreditation systems of certification service providers issuing qualified signature certificates, the establishment of a “Trusted List of supervised/accredited certification service providers”; profiles of qualified certificates and the interoperability of Secure Signature Creation Devices (SSCDs). CROBIES also proposes a model for providing guidelines and guidance for cross-border and interoperable implementation of electronic signatures.

Approach: study

Topics/phases: eSignature

Cooperation with: PEPPOL, STORK, ETSI

2.1.2 e-CERTIS

Objective/Mission: eCERTIS is a free, on-line information tool which provides details of the different certificates and attestations frequently requested in procurement procedures across the 27 Member States, two Candidate Countries (Turkey and Croatia) and the three EEA countries (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway). It represents a pragmatic response to the problems encountered by economic operators and contracting authorities when submitting and receiving evidence documents within a cross-border procurement process.

eCERTIS has been designed to help both economic operators and contracting authorities, first to understand what information is being requested or provided and secondly to identify mutually acceptable equivalents. This can be done fairly quickly, using a range of search criteria, including keyword searches in their own language.

2.1.3 ESSI

Objective/Mission: To set up a common Electronic Signature Services Infrastructure to be deployed at the EC, for the purpose of facilitating the introduction of electronic signatures in all of the Commission's circles of exchanges. ESSI considers separately the public key infrastructure (PKI) to issue, deliver and manage the certificates and the application platform that supports the actual creation, verification and extension of advanced electronic signatures. A solution based on interoperability standards is being deployed for this platform. A first real-life application integrating this solution and service was deployed within the context of the implementation of the Service Directive. Since January 2010, this application enables the Commission for the first time ever to guarantee the authenticity of information published on the Europa web site via the use of an electronic signature. Conformance to the European standards of this particularly visible signature was confirmed by ETSI..

Sub-projects

Activity "audit of eInvoicing"

Description: Workshop Phase II produced as outcome a set of good practice Guidelines for both businesses and tax administrations. This CWA seeks to reduce some of the principal areas of uncertainty and resulting inefficiencies on the e-invoicing market with one single set of good practice Guidelines for both businesses and tax administrations. While every effort has been made to ensure consistency with legal requirements that apply to e-invoicing in the European Union, no guarantees of legal compliance or fitness for purpose are made by the drafters or CEN; any use of these documents is at the user's own risk.

2.3.1 CEN BII - Workshop on 'Business Interoperability Interfaces on public procurement in Europe' Phase 2 (WS/BII 2)

Objective/Mission: to provide a basic framework for technical interoperability in pan-European electronic transactions, expressed as a set of technical specifications that cross-refer to relevant activities, and in particular are compatible with UN/CEFACT - in order to ensure global interoperability. The workshop is focusing on implementation facilitations and co-ordinating pilots implementing the technical specifications output. The requirements and final specifications are input into UN/CEFACT.

The starting point for the Workshop was the CEN BII Phase 1 (<http://www.ds.dk/en-GB/Sectors/ICT/Bii/Sider/default.aspx>).

2.3.3 CEN - Workshop on eInvoicing Phase 3 (CEN WS/INV3)

Objective/Mission: The work in the first two phases of the CEN eInvoicing Workshop has demonstrated the need for a common stakeholder understanding of the means to implement electronic invoicing. The Expert Group on eInvoicing, set up by the European Commission, has been a practical demonstration of the need for a clear regulatory and policy framework for raising awareness and bringing political emphasis.

The European Commission Expert Group on eInvoicing delivered its final report at the end of 2009 (see http://ec.europa.eu/enterprise/sectors/ict/files/finalreport\_en.pdf).

The major objective of the Work Shop is to provide support for a continuing technical platform to carry out the specific European work that stakeholders require, both in terms of the technical needs expressed in the CEN eInvoicing Workshop Phase 2 and the recommendations of the Expert Group by producing a set of defined CWAs. The overall target of Phase 3 will be "Integration of efforts in standardisation and developments".

This CEN e-invoice Platform will:

- Be open to the participation of any interested party;
- Reach stakeholder consensus on standards-related issues;
- Provide the appropriate interface with international and other European standards activities.

2.3.5 TSL plugtest

Objective/Mission: On 16 October 2009 the European Commission adopted a Decision setting out measures facilitating the use of procedures by electronic means through the 'points of single contact' under the Services Directive. One of the measures adopted by the Decision consists in the obligation for Member States to establish and publish by 28.12.2009 their Trusted List of supervised/accredited certification service providers issuing qualified certificates to the public. The objective of this obligation is to enhance cross-border use of electronic signatures by increasing trust in electronic signatures originating from other Member States.

The Trusted Lists will above all benefit to the verification of advanced e-signatures supported by qualified certificates in the meaning of the e-signature directive (1999/93/EC) as far as they have to include at least certification service providers issuing qualified certificates.

In order to validate advanced e-signatures supported by qualified certificates, a receiving party would first need to check their trustworthiness. This means that the receiving party has to be able to verify whether the signature is an advanced electronic signature supported by a qualified certificate issued by a supervised certification service provider as required by Article 3.3 of the e-signatures directive. The receiving party may also need to verify whether the signature is supported by a secure signature creation device.

Although the information necessary to verify these signatures should in principle be retrievable from the signature itself and from the content of the qualified certificate supporting it, this process can be rather difficult due to the differences in the use of existing standards and practices.

The publicly available Trusted Lists will make it much easier for signature recipients to verify the e-signatures by complementing the data that can be retrieved from the e-signature and the qualified certificate and by providing also information on the supervised/ accredited status of Member States' certification service providers and their services.

In order to allow access to the trusted lists of all Member States in an easy manner, the European Commission has published a central list with links to national "trusted lists". This central list has been created by the Directorate General for Informatics under the IDABC-programme in close collaboration with Directorates-General Internal Market and Services and Information Society and Media.

2.5.6 eInvoicing Expert Group

Objective/Mission: Commission Expert Group on eInvoicing with a mandate to propose the EEI Framework.

On november 2009, the Expert Group on e-invoicing adopted its final report (http://ec.europa.eu/enterprise/sectors/ict/files/finalreport\_en.pdf) of the results of the Expert group). The report defines a list of business requirements which represent necessary conditions for achieving mass adoption of e-Invoicing, in particular, the widespread use of e-Invoicing by SMEs. These requirements are validated against current market reality, resulting in a number of identified gaps or areas for improvement identified in the report. A set of recommendations addressing these gaps constitutes the proposed European e-Invoicing Framework, the key deliverable of the Expert Group. The report also makes recommendations with clearly defined tasks and owners as to how this Framework could be implemented. The report has been open for consultation until 26 February 2010. Responses have been collected and published.
